

KIT 1

Wild Columbine

Aquilegia canadensis

This hummingbird favorite is perfect for woody edges and areas with dappled sunlight. Prefers well-drained soils.

Botanical Name: Aquilegia canadensis	Common Name: Wild Columbine
Color: Red	Soil Moisture: Mesic-Dry
Bloom Time: Apr-June	Soil Type: Loam, Sand
Height: 1-3'	Wetland Indicator: FAC-
Sun Exposure: Full Sun to Full Shade	Seeds per Oz: 45000

Black-eyed Susan

Rudbeckia hirta

A must have plant for prairie restorations and wildflower gardens. The beautiful yellow blooms of this plants are well known. It is easy to grow and sows itself in favorable conditions.

Botanical Name: Rudbeckia hirta	Common Name: Black-eyed Susan
Color: Yellow	Soil Moisture: Wet Mesic-Dry
Bloom Time: June-Sep	Soil Type: Clay, Loam, Peat, Sand
Height: 1-3'	Wetland Indicator: FACU
Sun Exposure: Full Sun to Part Sun	Seeds per Oz: 130000

Wild Bergamot

Monarda fistulosa

A favorite of gardeners and prairie enthusiasts! Quick spreading, easy to grow wildflower with fragrant, minty foliage and beautiful large lavender blooms. Summer time means enjoying swaying stalks of bergamot blooms.

Botanical Name: Monarda fistulosa	Common Name: Wild Bergamot
Color: Lavender	Soil Moisture: Wet Mesic-Dry
Bloom Time: June-Aug	Soil Type: Loam, Peat
Height: 2-4'	Wetland Indicator: FACU
Sun Exposure: Full Sun to Part Sun	Seeds per Oz: 100000

Pale Purple Coneflower

Echinacea pallida

The narrow, drooping petals of the Pale Purple Coneflower have a charming waif-like look. A very popular wildflower for gardens and natural landscaping.

Botanical Name: Echinacea pallida	Common Name: Pale Purple Coneflower
Color: Purple	Soil Moisture: Mesic-Dry
Bloom Time: June-July	Soil Type: Loam, Sand
Height: 3-5'	Wetland Indicator: UPL
Sun Exposure: Full Sun to Part Sun	Seeds per Oz: 5500

New England Aster

Aster novae-angliae

Paint your garden purple and pink with this very popular Aster. One of the last blooms of the season before winter sets in.

Botanical Name: Aster novae-angliae	Common Name: New England Aster
Color: Purple	Soil Moisture: Wet-Dry Mesic
Bloom Time: Sep-Oct	Soil Type: Clay, Loam, Peat, Sand
Height: 3-6'	Wetland Indicator: FACW
Sun Exposure: Full Sun to Part Sun	Seeds per Oz: 100000